

ERL JOURNAL

Originality Guidelines

COPYRIGHT

ERL Journal accepts only papers submitted which are assumed to contain neither proprietary material nor the material which is unprotected by patent or patent application. The responsibility for the technical content and the protection of proprietary material relies solely on the author(s). In case of more authors, the main author is responsible for ensuring that the paper has been approved by all the other authors. The responsibility of the author is to obtain all necessary copyright release permissions for the use of any copyrighted materials in the paper prior to the submission.

ANTI-PLAGIARISM POLICY

ERL Journal has a policy of zero tolerance to plagiarism. ERL team check plagiarism via two methods: reviewers check and a selected plagiarism prevention tool.

POLICY ON CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

ERL Journal shall only publish articles after the author(s) have confirmed that they have disclosed all potential conflicts of interest. In case ERL Journal receives a complaint that any paper infringes copyright or other intellectual property rights. ERL team follow a good faith determination whether to remove the allegedly wrongful papers. Following this case ERL shall document its investigation and decision on unfair use of copyright.