The journal was created to fill the niche and to study the key position of language in education.

Since its very first volume, ERL Journal has striven to meet the following 10 quality benchmarks:

1	novel character : a unique platform for empirical and theoretical papers addressing the linguistic dimension of all education and placing language in the very centre of education ERL Journal – Mission Statement
2	extensive internationalisation : geographical diversity on different levels, including the authors, reviews, affiliations of the editorial board, strand coordinators, advisory board ERL Journal – Geographical Diversity
3	easy access : ready availability of all the papers, reviews and reports published in all the volumes, with the possibility of downloading any given text from any issue ERL Journal – Practices &amp; Statements
4	consistent trajectory : following the path developed jointly by the ERL circle and outlined online as well as in the introductions to the subsequent issues of the journal ERL Journal – Trajectory and Themes
5	global recognition : growing presence in journal databases, libraries, search engines, incl. EBSCO Host, ERIH Plus, DRJI, ROAD, Index Copernicus International, and many more Educational Role of Language Journal – Indexing
6	reader friendliness : content easily found thanks to application of different criteria (incl. alphabetical listing of all titles published, coloured index of things) ERL Journal – Index of Things / ERL Journal Oeuvre for Your Easy Search
7	author friendliness : availability of ready-given (paper/report/review) templates with additional advice provided on the structure, simplicity of text construction guidelines Submit to ERL Journal
8	regular publications : two issues being published every year and being immediately available online without any restrictions in downloading ERL Journal – Issues
9	special issues : the possibility of publishing issues intersecting or reaching beyond the journal's key strands, with guest editors being most welcome ERL Journal - Special Issue
10	methodological flexibility : as justified by the journal's entire (two-tier) scope, we welcome studies addressing the linguistic dimension of education qualitatively and quantitatively ERL Journal – Scope Major / ERL Journal – Scope Minor

selected other merits: simple contact with the editorial board, 48-hour paper preview (to assess paper suitability) and anti-plagiarism verification, short submission checklist for authors
